Welcome to 22674 Forest Lane located in Hermitage, Missouri. It is such a charming cabin nestled and overlooking woods with such a peaceful and serene setting. This is a perfect getaway to enjoy summer fun with Pomme de Terre Lake literally steps away. When you first walk in you will see the architecture that sets the tone for the layout of the property. For the square footage the property is nicely designed with two living spaces, two non-conforming bedrooms, dining area, kitchen and one full bathroom. The sunroom leads out to the deck for easy access to the outdoor space. The deck offers a great space to enjoy nature and relax plus the covered front porch as well to enjoy. Back inside the adorable loft overlooks the living room and makes a great bedroom for guests. The property has newly installed retaining walls, iron railings and a holding tank, all great upgrades to the property. Also has additional parking with fresh new gravel for your boat. You are steps away to the Pomme de Terre lake with access to the cove which is perfect for fishing and to put in a kayak/canoe or paddleboard! The Whispering Cove community well is turned off for the winter months.
