Imagine waking up to shimmering water just outside your front door -- no commute to paradise required, because you're already living in it. This waterfront lot on Table Rock Lake hands you a rare blank canvas, and the brush is officially yours. Spanning approximately .45 acres as a double lot, this generous parcel gives you room to dream big, sketch boldly, and finally build the home you've been mentally decorating for years. Bring your plans, bring your vision, and let the lake do the inspiring. Zoned residential and ready for its next chapter, the property sits within a charming lake community where golf carts are the preferred mode of transportation. Because honestly, why drive when you can cruise? Kimberling City is a genuine delight for anyone who loves life near the water. Local dining and shopping keep everyday errands pleasantly easy, while adventure waits just minutes away at Port of Kimberling Marina. There you'll discover tennis and pickleball courts, a welcoming park, boat rentals, slip rentals, a fuel dock, a marina store, and even a campground. In other words, your weekends just got considerably more interesting. Whether you envision lazy mornings sipping coffee by the shoreline or lively afternoons casting off for open water, this lot delivers the setting for it all. The hard part -- finding lakefront land worth building on -- is already
