Modern marvel! Masterfully remodeled from top to bottom, this 4-bedroom, 3-bath lakefront retreat brings bold design, quality craftsmanship, and the Table Rock Lake lifestyle together in one unforgettable setting. Tucked among the trees with water and marina views just steps away, the home feels private and connected to the lake. Dark Diamond Kote siding, stone accents, and thoughtful hardscaping create a striking first impression. Inside, vaulted ceilings, new windows, and wide-plank wood flooring establish a bright, open atmosphere. A suspended fireplace anchors the main living area, which flows into the dining space, bar, and sleek designer kitchen featuring quartz surfaces, flat-panel cabinetry, stainless appliances, statement lighting, and geometric tilework. The primary suite offers private outdoor access, a walk-in closet, and a spa-inspired bath. Three additional bedrooms and updated bathrooms continue the contemporary design, including an added full bath for additional guest comfort. Take in the lake and marina views from two new composite decks, the covered porch, or the quiet window-side seating overlooking the water. Beyond its striking appearance, the home has been thoughtfully rebuilt with quality and longevity in mind. Located in the small Caps Cove subdivision on Indian Point, this peaceful lakeside setting is
