Welcome to Ongo, Missouri, an unincorporated community dating back to 1925, when the post office was first established, and mail came by horseback. Later in 1949, after the post office closed, this Ozark oasis was parceled off and held privately owned ever since. Today, this historical landsite, encompasses over 900 acres with 2 miles of Swan Creek frontage, multiple residences, country store, barns, sawmill, shop buildings, sheds, and gazebos. In addition, there's a picturesque bridge that leads to Swan Creek Chapel with seating for 150 and a reception hall that accommodates up to 200 guests. Land lovers will find sheer delight exploring over 15 miles of roads and trails throughout lush forestry and 250+ acres of golden pasture offering home to diverse wildlife. Swan Creek aside, this property comes with a treasure trove of pure, clean water sources which include 4 wells and 15+ natural springs that feed into 2 lakes and 6 ponds stocked with fish. And there are so many beautiful, mature trees! Everything from Walnut, White & Red Oak, Sycamore, Cypress, Maple, Ash, Elm, Post Oak, Butter Nut Pine, and more! This is an incredible land opportunity for farm use, private estate, family compound, hunting grounds, corporate retreat, or a number of business venture possibilities.
