This stunning 24 acre property located just East of Sparta is private and secluded. The home is a perfect blend of everything you might dream of in a home. From the beautiful hickory wood flooring and the knotty alder kitchen cabinets. The floor plan opens up from the large kitchen island showcasing the flooring and granite tops. The master bedroom and bath with its double vanity and large walk in shower has a double doored walk in closet. The three bedroom two and a half bath home also has a office if working from home is a priority. The covered back deck is the perfect spot to enjoy that morning sunrise with a cup of coffee as you gaze over your property. The covered deck leads out to a great above ground pool and to the lower level patio with a built in rocked grill all perfect for family and entertaining. The large oversized three car garage gives you plenty of room and has a built in tornado shelter in the garage. The home has a newer roof put on in 2024 and is sided with LP Smart Siding that comes with a 50 year warranty. Bring your horses as the property has a nice barn with a couple of stalls and a fenced in riding area. The pride of ownership shines through in every detail of this property must see to appreciate.
