Welcome to 520 Parnell Drive, a remarkable waterfront estate where iconic Mid-Century Modern architecture meets one of Branson's most unique settings. Designed by nationally recognized architect Richard P. Stahl and built for the Parnell family, this historic home offers an extraordinary opportunity to own a piece of local history while creating your own legacy. Set on 1.54 acres across four lots, the property offers privacy, mature trees, panoramic water views, a private shoreline, and the rare opportunity to own a covered two stall dock on Roark Creek with direct access to Lake Taneycomo. The private circle drive provides ample parking for hosting - which this home was designed for! Inside the home, expansive windows invite the outdoors in, while multiple living areas, original architectural details, clean lines, and a flexible floor plan provide endless possibilities. The candy-colored bathrooms alone are a treat for anyone with an eye for design and an appreciation for originality! A private 681 square foot apartment is ideal for guests, multigenerational living, or a caretaker's suite. Located just minutes from Branson Landing, downtown Branson, shopping, dining, walking trails, and medical facilities, this property combines peaceful waterfront living with exceptional convenience. Whether you choose to preserve its architectural character or
