Secluded 62-Acre Country Retreat in the Ozark Mountains. Discover the natural beauty of the Ozarks with this rugged 62-acre property in scenic Ozark County, Southern Missouri. Just outside of town yet completely private, this wooded haven is rich in mature timber and features rolling terrain, a wet-weather creek, and abundant wildlife--including deer, turkey, and more. Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the property's unique character, with caves to explore and rumored historical Native American artwork. The land includes partial fencing, a main gate, a well, septic system, and electricity. An old hunting cabin and two mobile homes remain on the property but are of no value. With multiple potential building sites, this tract is ideal for creating your own private getaway, hunting retreat, or nature sanctuary. Easy access to nearby lakes, rivers, golf courses, hospitals, and small-town conveniences--plus endless opportunities for fishing, hunting, water sports, and outdoor adventure--make this property a rare find!
