4 Bedrooms | 4 Bathrooms | 3,000 Sqft

Discover your own private Ozark Mountain retreat on approximately 23+/- acres just a few miles west of Galena in Stone County, Missouri. Tucked away along a shared gated road, this beautiful log home offers the peace, privacy, and seclusion of country living while remaining within convenient driving distance of Table Rock Lake, Branson, and Springfield. This move-in-ready log home is surrounded by a picturesque mix of open pasture and mature timber. The manicured pasture has a park-like feel and features a small natural pond, while the wooded portions of the property are filled with mature oaks, black walnut, and other native hardwoods that create an incredible Ozark setting. Privacy and accessibility are standout features, with two gated points of ingress and egress. The rear entrance provides additional accessibility for trucks, trailers, equipment, or recreational vehicles. Whether you're searching for a secluded full-time residence, private weekend getaway, or recreational retreat near some of Southwest Missouri's most popular destinations, this property offers a rare combination of privacy, natural beauty, and accessibility. Properties with this kind of setting are best appreciated in person--schedule your private showing and experience the tranquility of it for yourself.
