$325,000

5 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 2,738 Sqft

Inside the Village of Four Seasons off Kays Point, this five bedroom, three bath home puts you a short walk from the pool, pickleball courts, playground, and lake access. Walking and biking trails start right out the front door. The setting is private, with a large flat driveway and main level living that keeps daily life on one floor. Five bedrooms leave room for guests, a home office, or everyone having their own space. Brand new roof, new stove, and a brand new Speed Queen washer and dryer. A pre-listing inspection has been completed and is available to review, and the seller is including a one year home warranty. What makes this one rare is the price. Entry level pricing in this neighborhood does not come along often, so it works just as well for a retiree wanting lower maintenance, privacy with community. A starter home OR growing family. The price also makes it ideal for an investor looking at a rental in a community people already know and want.
