As summer winds down and the first hint of fall fills the air, it's the perfect time to break ground on a new chapter! Create your peaceful lakefront retreat on beautiful Lake Taneycomo, renowned for world class trout fishing, bald eagle sightings and quiet days spent kayaking, casting from the shoreline or skipping stones across the water. Here, cool lake breezes, abundant wildlife and mature Ozarks timber surround you in natural privacy. Much of the hard work has already been done, with access to community water and electric available; hookup fees apply. Carve out the perfect homesite and build just the way you've always imagined in the heart of the rolling Ozark Hills. You'll feel wonderfully away from it all, yet remain just minutes from Branson's everyday conveniences, celebrated dining, live entertainment, shopping and endless outdoor adventures including hiking and biking throughout the Mark Twain National Forest. Additional nearby acreage and lots are also available from the seller, offering even more room to spread out, expand your vision or create a private family compound. Your next generation of cherished lake memories starts here @ Pomme De Terre Rd, Branson, MO.
