Welcome to country living in the Ozarks. This 13.5-acre Pomona, MO property is set up for horses, hobby farming, and anyone wanting usable land with great improvements. The acreage is fenced and cross-fenced, includes a stocked pond, and offers a quiet rural setting while still being close to West Plains. Directly across the road is the Dean Davis Conservation Area, providing easy access to hundreds of acres of natural Missouri wildlife, hiking, and outdoor recreation. The home features over 2,800 sq ft, four large bedrooms, two baths, and a dedicated hot tub/wet bar room. Outside, the property includes a 30 by 45 foot shop with tall overhead doors, a 30 by 45 foot barn/corral with horse stalls, a 24 by 20 foot garage, she-shed, garden shed, chicken coop, and a gazebo. A Generac generator and storm shelter add extra peace of mind. You'll also find peach, apple, and plum trees, plus grapes and blackberries, giving the land a comfortable homestead feel. This versatile Southern Missouri acreage has the space, setup, and outbuildings that make a country home feel complete. Schedule your showing today!
