A Private James River Escape Just Minutes from Springfield Discover an extraordinary riverfront retreat where luxury, privacy, nature, and investment potential come together. Set across 26.67 picturesque acres with approximately 830 feet of upper James River frontage, this beautifully situated 1, 326 sq. ft. cabin offers a rare opportunity to own a private sanctuary just 9 miles east of Springfield in the desirable Strafford School District. Surrounded by mature woods, this property feels worlds away while remaining conveniently close to everything Springfield has to offer. Imagine quiet mornings, afternoons spent exploring the well-maintained UTV trails, and evenings gathered with friends and family at the river. The property is also an established, high-performing short-term rental with approximately 95% year-round occupancy, offering an exceptional opportunity for the discerning buyer seeking both a private getaway and a proven income-producing asset. With its expansive acreage, remarkable river frontage, secluded setting, convenient location, and established rental history, this is far more than a cabin--it's a rare opportunity to own a destination.
