Escape to your own private Table Rock Lake retreat with this impressive full-log home situated on more than 7 secluded acres with lake frontage and a gentle walk to the water. Enjoy easy dock access and a 10x24 boat slip, making lake days as simple as walking out the door and heading to the boat. The home features a spacious wraparound deck perfect for relaxing, entertaining, and taking in the peaceful wooded surroundings. Inside, you'll find a comfortable floor plan with a private office located just off the primary suite, plus a walkout basement offering additional living and recreation potential. Outside, the property includes partial fencing, a detached two-car garage, RV hookup, and plenty of room for guests, hobbies, or additional improvements. Private, peaceful, and surrounded by nature, this rare lakefront property offers the space and seclusion of acreage living with convenient access to everything Table Rock Lake has to offer.
