2 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom | 1,002 Sqft

Bring your ideas and make this property your own! Located at 1703 Old Tuscumbia Road in Eldon, this 1,002 sq. ft. home sits on a double lot with approximately 1.1 acres while still offering the convenience of an in-town location near Eldon Elementary. 2 Beds and 1 bath with a large bonus room that could be additional living room or office. Some original hardwood floors ready to be refinished. Cedar-lined closet for the bedrooms. This property is a fixer-upper with plenty of potential for a buyer looking for a project, investment opportunity, or a place to customize to their needs. Outside, you'll find two workshops offering valuable space for tools, storage, hobbies, or projects, along with a unique root cellar located behind the home. The central air system is less than five years old, providing an important update while leaving plenty of opportunity for the next owner to add value through additional improvements. Bring your vision and see the possibilities at 1703 Old Tuscumbia Road. Property is under contract, continue to show and bring backup offer.
