Timeless architecture and exceptional craftsmanship define this distinctive waterfront retreat on 120 feet of shoreline at the Little Niangua s 3.5MM. Built over 20 years ago and beautifully maintained, this custom three-story home captures sweeping lake views from every level. Expansive walls of glass, custom corner windows and a dramatic three-story stair tower create a striking connection to the water. A leaded-glass entry door with accent lighting introduces the home s thoughtful details, while the step-down great room with gas fireplace offers an inviting gathering space. Two upper-level primary suites and an additional bedroom provide comfortable accommodations for family and guests. Outdoors, lush landscaping frames multiple patios, decks and intimate seating areas. Two waterfalls, a pond and a peaceful serenity garden complete the remarkable waterfront setting. A substantial 60 x 44 three-well dock features boat hoists, generous storage and ample space for lakeside entertaining, positioned over approximately 25 feet of water. With enduring design and extraordinary outdoor living, this one-of-a-kind Lake retreat deserves to be experienced in person. Arrange a private tour.
