The Hideouts set the standard for sophisticated storage solutions and this 25x50 climate controlled unit is the perfect example. Make this the ultimate Man Cave or She Shed! No hassle ownership with an HOA that pays for your water, sewer, trash, insurance, exterior maintenance and lighting. Quality all steel building with insulated interior/exterior walls and 14x14 Remote Garage Door. There is even an RV wash and dump station onsite! Protect your investment in a community with restrictions to allow only owners and guests and no exterior signage allowed to clutter up the look of the buildings. The building is designed with expansion in mind with a window in back of unit to make it easy to add a loft area for additional useable space if you want. Also, plumbed for full bathroom, bar and kitchen.... This place is READY TO ROLL!
