ONE-LEVEL GOLF COURSE LIVING Overlooking the first hole of Highland Springs Country Club, this Howard Bailey-built home offers 3 bedrooms, an office, 2.5 baths and more than 3,400 square feet, all on one level in a gated community. The spacious, well-designed floor plan is oriented toward the golf course, with tall ceilings and a wall of windows that fill the main living space with natural light and opens the home to expansive views of the course and landscaped backyard. The kitchen serves as the center of the home, with a large island, bar seating and generous cooking space opening to the dining area and hearth room. A second wet bar adds flexibility for entertaining, while gas fireplaces in both the hearth and living room create comfortable gathering spaces. Heated travertine tile extends throughout much of the home, complemented by carpet in the living room and bedrooms. Plantation shutters and electronic blinds provide additional light and privacy control. The split-bedroom layout places the primary suite apart from the home's two additional bedrooms and dedicated office. One secondary bedroom has an adjoining bath, while the laundry room and half bath are conveniently located in the hall just off the kitchen. The design offers an appealing alternative for those who want generous living space without a multistory floor plan.
