Crafted from timber harvested directly from the property, this one-owner, custom-built log home offers a story that simply cannot be replicated. Set along Liberty Road in Rogersville, the secluded log home residence pairs rustic character with remarkable land and renovation potential. Bring your ideas and personal style to remodel the interiors while preserving the authentic warmth and craftsmanship of a true log home. Whether you favor a cozy cabin-inspired look or a more contemporary contrast, this property provides an uncommon canvas for your vision. Beyond the home, the setting takes center stage. Cleared ground is ready to support livestock, while wooded areas add privacy, natural beauty, and habitat for abundant wildlife, including deer and turkey, and even a rare black bear sighting! A fully stocked pond invites quiet afternoons spent fishing or simply enjoying the view. Beautiful scenery unfolds in every direction, offering a peaceful backdrop for daily life. A large two-car garage with a loft and attached workshop expands the property's usefulness for storage, hobbies, equipment, or projects. Additional outbuildings provide even more flexibility for rural living. Despite its private atmosphere, this retreat is approximately 20 minutes from Springfield, with Rogersville conveniences. Rare in character and rich with possibility, this is your chance to
