3 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom

Welcome to a truly special generational farm, cherished through the years and filled with wonderful memories. Spanning three parcels totaling 75+ acres, this beautiful property offers a peaceful country setting with room to live, work, and enjoy the land for generations to come. The ranch-style home features 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, hardwood floors, a wood-burning fireplace, vinyl siding, a metal roof, and a 2-car attached garage. A full unfinished basement provides abundant storage and additional space with room to grow. The farm itself offers open pastureland ready for hay production or livestock, along with wooded acreage, a pond, and a red iron equipment shed ideal for hay or farm equipment. An additional farmhouse provides potential for a second home or investment property. Due to its current condition, certain areas of the structure may be unsafe. Buyers and agents are advised to use extreme caution when viewing the property. The additional farmhouse is being sold as-is; buyer to conduct their own due diligence regarding the structure and its potential use. More than just acreage, this is a place with a special history--a farm where generations have gathered, worked the land, celebrated milestones, and made lasting memories. Now, this beloved property is ready for its next chapter and the opportunity for a new owner to create
