This isn't just a lake home. It's a lakeside lodge. A real log home. A soaring great room. A massive covered deck. A spectacular view. This is what happens when your dream lake home finally finds an address. Set above the Pomme de Terre River arm of Pomme de Terre Lake, this true three-level log home feels less like a house at the lake and more like the lake lodge you've been picturing for years. The kind of place where the first thing you do in the morning is walk onto the deck, look across the water, and remember exactly why you wanted a place here. Inside, massive beams and soaring vaulted ceilings create a dramatic great room where the kitchen, dining and living spaces come together beneath a wall of windows and a breathtaking lake view. A gas-log fireplace anchors the room, while a covered deck stretches nearly the entire length of the lake-facing side--ready for morning coffee, sunset dinners and nights that somehow last a little longer. The main living level also offers two bedrooms and a hall bath, with the primary suite claiming the entire upper level. Follow the beautiful cedar staircase to a landing overlooking the great room, then step into a private retreat with a spectacular vaulted ceiling, walk-in shower, en-suite bath and generous walk-in closet. The lower level is where this lodge really reveals itself. Facing the lake, it
