Discover your own private hunting getaway on 39.8 acres +/- tucked a few miles off the highway. This property is all wooded, designed for privacy, recreation, and weekend escapes. Surrounded by hundreds of acres of conservation land, you'll enjoy privacy with plenty of space to roam for hunting, scouting, and exploring. Whether you're looking for a place for deer camp, a possible off grid hunting/retreat cabin, or simply slip away for the weekend and get back to nature, this tract offers both space and privacy. The property also features a pond that holds water most of the time when rain allows. If you've been searching for seclusion, privacy, and a property that feels tucked away, this is it. Come enjoy the woods, escape the noise, and turn this property into your own.
