362 +/- Acres of Incredible Ozark Beauty, Waterfront, Recreation, and History! Discover a truly one-of-a-kind property offering an extraordinary combination of natural beauty, outdoor recreation, and nearly a century of local history. This remarkable 362 +/- acre property features miles of well-maintained, easily accessible trails winding through mature timber, towering bluffs, massive rock formations, and scenic wooded terrain. Multiple access points to Cole Camp Creek provide incredible opportunities for fishing, camping, and enjoying the waterfront. With consistent good water depth, you can fish along the creek all year round. At the heart of the property sits a spacious 6-bedroom, 3.5-bath home offering plenty of room for family gatherings, entertaining guests, or creating the ultimate hunting and recreational retreat. A detached building with concrete floors and electricity provides additional storage and workspace, while a stocked pond offers even more fishing opportunities. Throughout the acreage, you'll find established food plots, numerous potential locations for hunting blinds and tree stands & multiple waterfront areas that would make exceptional campsites.
