Come to Bradleyville and enjoy 67 acres of mixed pasture and woods which borders the Mark Twain National Forest on the North and West sides. This property offers a great place to build a home, hunt, or other recreational activities such as hiking, mountain biking, or riding ATVs. The property is quiet and secluded sitting way from the highway for maximum peace and enjoyment. We are working with the National Forest Service and local power company to bring electric closer to the 67 acres, which will reduce the cost to extend the power in the future.
